ASCON Educational License
Terms and Conditions

ASCON authorizes the purchase of KOMPAS educational software licenses with discounted pricing only for registered educational institutions (including schools, colleges, and universities) and students during their period of study. Institutions and students purchasing educational licenses agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. KOMPAS education licenses are to be used for educational, non-commercial projects only. Commercial use of the software by students or teachers is prohibited
2. KOMPAS education licenses are to be installed at educational institutions or at the homes of students for educational purposes only. Institutions and students cannot transfer educational licenses to commercial enterprises and other third-parties.
3. Participating institutions allow ASCON to use their name and likeness for public relations and marketing purposes. Institutions agree to assist ASCON in arranging case studies of their use of the software, as well as provide feedback on product development. Institutions should notify ASCON of issues involving confidential or proprietary information.
4. Licenses will be granted to students only when students present a scanned copy of their valid student ID card. Student licenses are temporary, and are valid only for the duration of study. Students may renew their licenses by annually sending a copy of their valid student ID cards to ASCON by email.
5. ASCON may accept or reject any order, in whole or in part, at its sole discretion. In the event of unauthorized, non-educational usage, ASCON reserves the the right to terminate the license.

I agree to the terms and conditions for using KOMPAS educational or student licenses on behalf of the above named Institution.
